Hudson Lines, Kingsway Camp,
New Delhi – 110009.

Sub.: Holding of Press Conference on 06.05.2010 in violation of directives of the Commission – regarding.

Sir,

You are aware that the Commission had given you a direction on 06.04.10 not to make statement in the Press on any matter relating to tariff fixation. This direction was reiterated to you by the Commission on 06.05.2010, in response to your letter no. NDPL/2010 dated 06.05.2010, faxed to us at 02.40 p.m.

2. From the newspapers of 07.05.2010, it is clear that you have held a Press Conference on 06.05.2010 and apparently you have spoken on the matters relating to tariff determination for FY 10-11 even though the tariff petitions are pending before the Commission and the hearing has been concluded. You are directed to explain how the Press Conference held on 06.05.2010 is not violative of the directions of the Commission stated above.

3. Your reply must come by 14th of May, 2010.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-
