INTERIM ORDER

(Date of Hearing: 06.04.2022)

(Date of Order: 06.04.2022)

Heard Shri Venkatesh Counsel for the Petitioner. It transpires from the arguments forwarded by Shri Venkatesh that somehow the Petitioner is being forced to obtain electricity from Pragati-1 on a permanent basis and this is causing financial constraints for the Petitioner as the gas from Pragati-1 is very highly priced. On further examination of the Petition, we have not been able to convince ourselves that the allegations leveled by the Petitioner are fully borne out by the documents annexed. It also appears that the petition was filed much earlier however, for some reason it has come up before this Court for the first time. Much water has flown and many discussions have taken place with the Petitioner and the Officers of the DERC. At present, we feel that the position when the Petition was filed has changed drastically and it will not be holding water in the present context. We feel that, it will be advisable that Shri Venkatesh may take fresh instructions from the clients and update the
