(Date of Order : 24 .07.2007)

1. No one for the complainant is present.
2. The Commission has gone through the pleadings and also heard the arguments of the Representative of the Respondent, Sh. Rajeev Ranjan. It seems to be a case where the details submitted by the parties are not clear and may need the parties to lead evidence. On the basis of the available details furnished by the parties, it is difficult to make out that there has been a violation of any statutory provision of the Act or the Regulations or any order or directions of the Commission.
3. Considering all aspects of the matter and the facts which are not very clear, unless the parties lead further evidence, the Commission decides to refer the present complaint to the concerned CGRF for adjudication and final disposal.
4. Ordered accordingly.
