Order

(Date of Order: 16.10.2026)

1. The instant Petitions have been filed by New Delhi Municipal Council seeking permission to Levy Power Purchase Adjustment Cost (hereinafter called PPAC) from its consumers pertaining to the following quarters of the FY 2025-26:
 - (i) July' 2025 to September' 2025;
 - (ii) October' 2025 to December' 2025;
2. The Petitioner seeks In terms of the Regulation 30 of Business Plan Regulations 2023 to permit the Petitioner to levy the PPAC claim of 35.07% (i.e. 43.82% - 8.75%) and 70.24% (i.e 78.99%-8.75%) pertaining to the period (i) July' 2025 to September' 2025 and (ii) October '2025 to December' 2025; respectively on the bills of all consumers for the period of three months.
3. The Commission vide its Order dated 01.04.2026 in Petition No. 57 of 2025 has allowed the Petitioner/NDMC to recover PPAC @8.75% for incremental Power Purchase Cost of Quarter-1 of FY 2025-26 i.e. April'2025 to June'2025 for a period of 3 months.

4. It is noticed that the Regulation 30 of the Business Plan Regulations, 2023 governing the mechanism for recovery of Power Purchase Adjustment Charges (PPAC), has since been deleted vide the Delhi Electricity Regulation Commission (Business Plan) (First Amendment) Regulations, 2026 on 30.04.2026. However, the Regulation 134(I) of the Delhi Electricity Regulatory Commission (Terms and Conditions for Determination of Tariff) (Second Amendment) Regulations 2026 is applicable which provides that:

“Against the claims of FPPAS, if any, for the intervening period i.e. after expiry of the period concerned as per the last order passed by this Commission for PPAC (FPPAS) and before the applicability of these Regulations the DISCOMs shall be allowed to recover PPAC (FPPAS) at the rates approved by the Commission in its last order issued for PPAC, irrespective of the rates as may be applicable for the relevant quarter (falling under the intervening period) as per clause-30 of the existing Business Plan Regulations (BPR), 2023. The rates to be claimed for the intervening period shall be as under: TPDDL (7.24%), BRPL (5.76%), BYPL (2.96%), NDMC (8.75%).”

5. Accordingly, the present Petitions are disposed of in terms of this Regulation.
